

Dope Roundup Nets Huge Haul of Suspects

About a dozen area men were arrested as suspected dope peddlers in a large scale roundup of 200 "pushers."

Los Angeles police officers obtained warrants for the arrest of scores of suspects who had sold heroin, marijuana, morphine and amideone to undercover agents they said.

Officers spent $8000 in making 170 buys from peddlers who have allegedly been supplying high school students with drugs.

Scotty's Castle in Death Valley does not have a nail in it, having been put together with bolts and wooden pins, reports the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Shearing Heads Jazz Performers

Jazz will go to college at El Camino when George Shearing and his Quintet journey to the local campus tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. for a full-length concert in the Women's Gym.

This special appearance, the first major jazz concert at Wariorville in five years, will have only a one-night stand.

Tickets for the performance may be obtained immediately in the book store of the Campus Center at prices of $1.50 for bleacher seats and $2 for center section seats.

Five Saxons in Top Scholarship Competition Final

Five seniors at North High School and a former student now attending the American High School, Kaiserlautern, Germany have reached the finals of the 1958-59 National Merit Scholarship Program and have been awarded Certificates of Merit, according to Principal Dale M. Harter.

Julie Henderson, Jack Buehler, Clarence Fuzak, Carl Thornton, James Wilson and Kathryn Schade have received the Certificates.

Teacher's Group Awards Norcross Scholarship

Marilyn Norcross was the proud recipient of the Harbor Association of Childhood Education's $100 scholarship award at a dinner in her honor at the Hacienda Hotel recently.

The Harbor area group of the association, which has local, State, National and International levels, provided the award through funds raised by educational tours, luncheons and dinners.

The scholarship program began a year and a half ago and includes, Gardena, Narbonne, Banning and San Pedro High Schools.

Marilyn, a graduate of Banning High School, plans to enter Long Beach State College, where she will take up Elementary School teaching.

Mrs. Mary MacConno is chairman of the scholarship committee, which includes Mmes. Marie Bunch, Simon Leyka, Mel Cattlett, Marie Allen and Miss Edna Woodworth.
